

October 21, 2010 Issue #16 Editor: Shirley Harrison

NEXT WEEK: Kim Raney, Chief of Covina Police

Local Police Chief and Covina Sunrise Rotarian Kim Raney joins us to talk about Prop 19 and issues related to marijuana as both a prescribed substance and a street drug. Chief Raney has been with Covina PD since 1977. He is a graduate of Azusa Pacific University and the FBI's Southwest Command College. He is a member of the International Association of Chiefs of Police and has served in leadership roles for California Police Chiefs Association and San Gabriel Valley Police Chiefs Association.

LAST WEEK: Mara Protas of ICMC

Mara taught us EMT – Emotional Freedom Technique (acupuncture without needles). She had us patting our heads, poking ourselves in our faces, and acting like monkeys. The presentation was both helpful and fun!

NEXT WEEK: 1st Lieutenant Robert Parry

Gordon Browning once again brings us one of our “adopted” soldiers, 1st Lt. Robert Parry. He is the Commander of the 40th ADT Infantry and will update us on the challenges our military faces abroad.

October 24 is World Polio Day and buildings, such as the Sydney Opera House, will once again carry our message:

Thanks Gordon for introducing us to the world of Adopt-A-Troop.....

CALENDAR OF EVENTS:

Sunday, October 24 – All Shook Up and Clubhouse 66

November 13 – Potential Rotary Leadership Seminar in Etiwanda: PRLS will be free to Covina Rotarians.

November 17 – Polio Plus Mini Fundraiser at Azo Vino

Mr. Brochure: President Elect Craig Cerro has been moonlighting in the area of Public Relations while creating our new club brochure, as well as a highly effective Dan Stover brochure for distribution to potential contestants.

Mr. Interact: When Andy McIntyre is not inspiring Interact Students to conduct pajama drives for WINGS or do NEW projects for Hospice in 2010-2011, he and girlfriend Lisa smooze with Rotarians.

So John Salter, what do you and your wife Carol do when you are not smoozing with Andy and Lisa?
