This Week:

Program: Computer Fraud

Computer Fraud is rampant as the use of computers becomes more and more common. There are many ways thieves can make their ways into your computer without you realizing it such as hoax emails, “posing” as someone else on the internet or using spyware to gather information about you. Detective James Rochford from Covina PD is an expert on computer fraud and he’s here to tell us how to safeguard ourselves against these scams.

Next Week:

A program from USO presented by Mike Teilmann, an executive director for LAX, Ontario and Palm Springs chapters.

Last Week:

The Dan Stover Music Competition.

The Orchestrator: Sanford King

The Contestants: 7 talented musicians from local HS

The Winner:

Need I say more....

Big REMINDERS:

“Anything Goes” is TONIGHT!!! This is a minor but successful fundraiser for the club thanks to 100% participation from our members. If you did not realize that you’ve bought the tickets, well you did so might as well show up and enjoy. Remember, only appetizers will be served. See you all at Covina Performing Arts Center around 6:30 pm for silent auction and door prizes. Show time is 8 pm sharp.

This Is It!!! The major fundraiser will be this weekend. Yes, the biggest event of the year, the FUN RUN is this Sunday at Royal Oak Middle School. We’ll need everyone there to help out. If you did not get a chance to sign up to volunteer, don’t worry! We’ll find something for you to do. I heard Chef Miguel still needs help in the kitchen.
