

THIS WEEK: PRESIDENT SUE
SOME ASSEMBLY REQUIRED

It is that time again, our Club Assembly, where all your wildest ideas can be shared. This time the Assembly comes with an instruction manual (ie: agenda). However, the men in our Club are not really expected to read any further:

1. Introduction by President Sue
2. Brief overview of budget by Treasurer Rich with results of Fun Run and the Playhouse Fundraiser by Chairs Jon and Tricia
3. Status of new programs, such as KINGS (Sue), the anti-bullying program and grant (Craig), WINGS shelter program and grant (Lisa), and Intervale for Seniors (Lisa).
4. Input from the audience:
 - a. Future service program spending, plus new or revisited hands on projects
 - b. Weekly lunch programs: the good, bad and the ugly! What do you think?
 - c. Social activity preferences – your choice!
5. Open discussion, also known as a “free for all”

Our club's social side

We all know that Rotarians are constantly out there doing good deeds in the world. We're dealing with literacy, polio, clean water, world peace, and all sorts of other issues to make Covina and this entire world a better place.

However, everyone needs time to rest, relax, and enjoy the fruits of their labors – preferably with friends and family.

In planning the calendar for 2011-2012, Craig Cerro needs to know what relaxing activities you want to do with your Rotary friends. Here are some ideas that President Sue provided. They are all based upon things this club has done in the past. However, this club is more likely to do something YOU like, if you provide ideas. Not everyone will go to everything, but it would be great if everyone went to something during the year! What do you think of:

- Fellowship dinners -- basically small dinner parties;
- Dinner and a play, like Ragtime and Roadhouse 66;
- Club parties, like our Christmas evening party;
- Field trips to places of interest, like the USO;
- Parties at someone's home or elsewhere;
- Weekend getaways;
- Family events or Adult only events;
- Dumpster diving for treasures or something else?

Meals on Wheels

Here's an opportunity for one-on-one time with a friend from Rotary. If you have not yet done Meals on Wheels, try it. It's more rewarding than you might think. Dates are available in June of 2011 through December of 2012.
