

This Week:

James Sanchez
 Southern California Director, Church Relations
 World Vision

World Vision is a Christian humanitarian organization dedicated to working with children, families, and their communities worldwide to reach their full potential by tackling the causes of poverty and injustice. They partner with local pastors, youth workers, teachers, business owners, students, and parents to carry out their work.

James Sanchez came to World Vision in 1993. He was born in Watts and grew up in East Los Angeles. For the past 19 years he has been a Senior Manager at World Vision over six National Managers operating Child and Family Programs across the U.S. and for the past 13 years as a National Manager for Church Relations .

Last Week:

It's all about the water!!

John Tulac, Director of Water Programs
 Village Network Africa

The Rotary Club of Claremont has developed an expertise for identifying sustainable water projects in Africa and leading the funding to build and maintain them. They have partnered with Village Network Africa to construct 17-18 protected wells in villages. Last week's presentation focused on current water projects and opportunities for other Rotary Clubs to participate in bringing clean water to remote villages.

Claremont Rotary Club member Roger House is the liaison with the local clubs in Africa and is the person who prepares the grants and other paperwork for District and International in order to fund these projects.
