Issue 28

Editor: Linda Logan

THIS WEEK: Joseph Sirgy, Managing Partner Trilogy Financial Services

Joseph Sirgy has worked with Fortune 500 companies achieve financial success with their businesses. After spending twenty years doing so, he decided to follow his passion and start helping individuals like you and me achieve our financial goals.

Joseph earned his Bachelor's degree from Purdue University and his Master's Degree in Business Administration with an emphasis in Marketing and Finance from Loyola Marymount University.

In addition to his MBA, he also holds a Series 6, 63, 65 and 7 licenses as well as life, health, disability, and Long Term Care insurance licenses from the State of California.

Last Week: Steve Sherman, Covina Irrigating Company

Tara shared a video narrated by the late Bill Temple giving our club an uncut version of Covina's rich history. Hard to believe our little town "A mile square and all there" would be known as one of the country's largest shipping areas, amongst some other very interesting facts.

NEXT WEEK: William Scroggins – Craft Talk

Membership is critical to any organization. One of the core fundamentals to retaining members is getting to know them both professionally, and personally.

When Dr. Scroggins was inducted, we saw a glimpse into his life. Next week he will give us an in depth look.

FUN RUN

John Teran and his committee have been working very hard organizing Fun Run 2012. The Fun Run will be held on March 25. Please mark your calendars. Help is always welcome – and needed.

FIELD OF HONOR

It is projected that 20% of our troops returning home from the wars will be homeless.

Covina Rotary is planning a new fundraiser called the Field of Honor that will help with the plight of the troops.

There will be a planning session at the McIntyre Company office on Wednesday, February 22, 12:00 noon. If you would like to attend, please let Linda Logan know by email – and remember to bring your own lunch.

Minigrants

Touching the lives of many at one time in our community- below is a picture of the Minigrant recipients.

International Convention

The International Convention will be held in Bangkok this year. Go to Rotary.org to register.

International Convention is a great way for a member to understand the vast network of cultures and people that Rotary is made of. If you have never gone – it is an experience of a lifetime.
