THIS WEEK

DR. MIKE HENDRICKS:

How I spent my winter break.

Some people think the Matterhorn at Disneyland is an e-ticket ride during the holiday season in December. Mike and wife Laurie decided that it would be more fun to trek the Annapurnas, a section of the Himalayas in North Central Nepal. Their trip also included time in Kathmandu and Pokhara. Now we can vicariously relive the trip with him (without the muscle pain) at this week's Rotary meeting.

LAST WEEK

BUFORD (BICK) HARMAN III, PT, DPT

Craft Talk from one of our newest members!

Bick is owner of Harmon Physical Therapy, Inc. If you missed his terrific craft talk, be sure to sit by him and catch up on his interesting life stories. You just never know about the quiet ones! They'll surprise you every time.

MISCELLANEOUS NEWS AND MADNESS

Thanks goes out to Mike and Louise Newman for hosting an exclusive dinner party for our new members, Bick Harman and Tony Nevarez, and their wives. Although there were a few other Rotarian couples in attendance, don't worry if you were not on the guest list. There is always a next time.

For example: May 1st at Giovanni's Restaurant was an opportunity to have dinner with your fellow Rotarians, in the guise of a "Red Badge Meeting."

Sue Wysocki is also looking into an event at Citrus College Haugh Performing Arts Center on May 19 or 20. For those interested, the Citrus Singers are doing their annual musical performance. Rotarians attending the show would also have the opportunity to meet for dinner. Contact Sue if you are interested. Otherwise, this event may go by the wayside.

Mission of the week: Find the Smiths & Bring them safely home to Rotary. I miss them.
