

Covina Rotary Club - District 5300 - Chartered March 8, 1923

December 6, 2012 Issue #20 Editor: Linda Logan

This Week: "Wall Street vs. Main Street"

Jon Teran and our favorite Meals on Wheels coordinator Casey Morris will help us to navigate the murky waters of investments with their presentation of "Supply and Demand".

Jon is a Certified Financial Planner™ with Capstone Pacific Investments. He has a B.A. from Biola University, M.A. from Fuller Seminary and a M.A. from Cal Poly Pomona.

Jon joined Capstone Pacific Investment Strategies since its inception in 2011. He is active in Rotary, coaches his children's soccer teams, and runs marathons.

Casey Morris is a Certified Financial Planner™. She graduated from Cal State Fullerton with a Bachelors in Human Communication Studies and a minor in Business.

Casey loves to golf, play and coach soccer, coordinate meals on wheels, and enjoy time with her husband on the weekends.

Last Week:

Program: Craft Talk by Dawn Cychner

Dawn gave a great craft talk. She married her high school sweet heart, has two children, and lives in Upland.

Likes: Beaches, hotels (that is her camping world), family. She is a (un)shopper, and her favorite vacation spot was New Orleans! She loves some cooking show (I'm not a T.V. watcher sorry Dawn).

She owns her own company... and is fun loving. A great asset to our club.

Next Week:

Richard Iniguez of Veolia Environmental Services will educate us on the services that they offer in Azusa.

Veolia Environmental Services is a division of a worldwide company and the local Tech Services include a fuels blending and recycling facility in Azusa as well as extensive field services. They package, ship and dispose of hazardous materials under the Federal, State and local compliance requirements.

New Member proposals

Julie Freedman Araballo – Wells Fargo Bank Commercial Lending division – proposed by Fred Madjar. Julie would like to give back to the community in which she works.

Patricia Serio – owns an injection mold company. The company was previously located in Covina but recently moved to San Dimas. Patricia is proposed by Rich Jett, and would like to give back through an organization that has purpose.

If you have any concerns about either of these two new proposed members, please contact Lisa Brabo.

From the Board Room

At the CRC Board meeting on November 28:

Rich Jett reported that FOV at that date netted $35,716.20. A couple of minor invoices were still outstanding – we had not received yet.

Tricia Vagt pre-PETS is December 8

Christmas Luncheon December 20 is on track. Covina High will provide entertainment.

Covina Cares is December 17 for box pick up. December 22 is delivery. We were short of food last year – more collection boxes, and get the word out this year.

Fun Run – Jon Teran reported goal of $15,000 this year, accomplished by raising both event sponsors and adult runner participation.

RYLA will take place March 1 – March 3. Sue Wysocki is heading it up this year.

Dan Stover – Sanford King reported the date is February 21. He is looking for last judge. Schools have been asked to publicize with the scholarship opportunities.

Club Service Director Fred Madjar stated that programs requiring computer set up should arrive no later than 11:40, giving presenters ½ hour prior to the starting bell.
