This Week: You better watch out... 'cause Santa is!

Today is Covina Rotary's Annual Christmas Luncheon. We will be entertained by the Covina High Choir, and of course Santa Clause. However, that is not all – we also will learn who will be our fearless leader in the 2014-15 Rotary year. Rotary's 110 year anniversary!

The Spirit of Christmas: The Christmas spirit lives within all of us. Each of us has our own memories of this joyous season. One common thread for each memory is family.... Here we will share some of our families with each other:

Wayne Partee's Grandson

Lauren, Travis & Alan – Sigona Grandchildren

The Reyes Girls

Fred & Art in Israel

The Teran Family

Tom Patronite's grandchild

Proud parents to be of Teal's Great Grandchild

Linda's Granddaughter, Kennedy

Last Week:

Program: Richard Iniguez of Veolia Environmental

Richard Iniguez, Regional Sales manager for Veolia ES Technical Solutions LLC gave us an inside view of recycling, and the hazmat capabilities of one of the world leaders in the field Veolia International. The best part – it is right here in our back yard!

Next Week:

Program: WE ARE DARK

If you show up... you may be alone!

Covina Cares update:

Each year Covina Rotary in concert with the community identifies families in need during the holidays. This year, we have 260 families to serve.

We have picked up the collection boxes, and although we have a good amount of food, it is not enough for the needs of our

We are in the process of sorting food by family, and will be pulling toys tonight and Friday night.

Please come to 2522 E. Workman, West Covina if you can help. We are there from 3:30 to ?_every day.

Deliveries are on Saturday, December 22 at 8:00 am.

See over for Christmas songs

Christmas Carols to Shop by:

Tune: Deck the Halls

Deck the streets with phony holly

Fa-la-la-la La-la-la-la

Christmas makes the merchants jolly

Fa-la-la-la La-la-la-la

Windows full of gifts to please us.

Fa-la-la-la La-la-la-la

Happy Birthday, little Jesus

Fa-la-la-la La-la-la-la

Tune: O Little Town o Bethlehem

O, little town on Christmas Eve

How busy art thou tonight!

Thy stores won't close 'til 10 o'clock,

Thy streets are thronged and bright,

The clerks are tired and cranky,

The merchandise is junk.

The little dears are all in tears,

And Santa Claus is drunk.

Tune: Jingle Bells

Dashing through the streets,

Snarling as you go;

If someone's in your way,

Shove the so-and-so,

Whizzing through the doors,

Charging down the aisles,

All the Christmas faces wreathed

In tense and nervous smiles.

(Chorus) Oh, buy out stuff!

Buy our stuff!

Empty out your purse!

That steadily grown worse

Oh, we have to go..lovely gifts

For each Him and Her.

If we're out of frankincense

Buy our dandy myrrh!

Tune: Santa Claus is Coming to Town

Y'better not mope, Y'better not frown

Y'better not keep expenditures down.

Santa Claus is coming to town.

Y'better not scrimp, Y'better not save.

Ya gotta give more than the other gave.

Santa Clause is coming to town.

So load up all your charge accounts

And let the payments wait

And and expensive Christmas cards

To people that you hate, hate, hate!

Y'better not whine, Y'better not cry

Everything's fine just as long as you buy;

Santa Claus is coming to town.

Tune: Come All Ye Faithful

Oh come all you buyers

How 'bout some radial tires?

Or maybe you want to give

A mink to your love.

Come sign at the bottom.

You don't need no cash chum;

O come and let us sell you,

O come and let us dun you.

O come and let us sue you-hoo

Welcome aboard!
