THIS WEEK

Speaker: Robert Moreno

Topic: Man-e Foundation

Program Chairman : Brian Akers

Robert is the president and founder of the Man-e Moreno Foundation and has become a very influential voice to the youth in our local communities. Moreno started the Foundation 6 months after he lost his 26 year old brother to a random violent crime in Covina on November 10, 2007. Robert and his family, along with a staff of volunteers have dedicated their lives to helping families that find themselves in the similar situation.

LAST WEEK

Dr. Adler explained the little known ROP program - the ramifications and practical usefulness of teaching skills that enable high school graduates to get a job. In this day and age, that is sorely needed.

NEXT WEEK

Anita Wright will present a program regarding the Braille Institute. Polish up your fingertips to read along with her.

2013 Minigrant Winners

Actually, the classroom students of the wonderful, gifted teachers are the winners. Thanks to the efforts of many Covina Rotarians we have been able to fund the enrichment program we know as minigrants for many years. Jon Teran announced last week that the Fun Run raised $11,500 which will be used for the 2014 migrants. We can look forward to enjoying a program from several of these teachers. You can then see how valuable these classroom enrichment programs are for our children. This is a very special Covina Rotary Service program.

The memorial service for Ed Kissell is scheduled for Saturday, April 27, 10:00 AM at Sacred Heart Church, Workman Avenue, West Covina. Please join the family after at All-Pack, 718 Arrow Grand Circle, Covina. Ed was responsible for the first Fun Run. Thanks, Ed.

ALL HAIL OUR "FLAG GUYS"

OOPS: April 15 is history, but did you know it had a double effect this year. Income tax day is a given but the 15th was also the tax free day too. All money(100%) we earned until that day went to pay our taxes. All money we earn after April 15 we can keep for our own use. Hooray.

HISTORY DINNER

Our new members were treated to a wonderful Rotary history dinner by Patricia Harvey. Marci Smith presented an absolute gourmet feast, as usual. Steve Mathis served his Phantom River wines. Tom Patronite, Shirley Harrison, Jerry Smith and Harry Borak regaled the new members with Rotary lore in grand style.
