May 30, 2013 Issue #42 Editor: Jon Teran

This Week:

Clark Longhurst

President of Monterey Energy

Clark will provide an overview of current technologies and trends in Energy Efficiency for commercial building owners, property managers and tenants. He will tell you everything you ever wanted to know about the latest in interior and exterior LED lighting solutions, Lighting and HVAC controls, demand response programs, changes to the California Title 24 Regulations, available utility incentives and rebates from Southern California Edison, DWP, etc.

About Monterey Energy

Monterey Energy helps businesses and property owners lower their energy costs, maximize utility incentives and increase property values through high quality – low risk energy efficiency upgrades on a national platform.

About Clark:

Clark Longhurst is President of Monterey Energy and has been involved in the property management and energy efficiency industry for the past 9 years. Prior to joining Monterey, he worked in the corporate transactions group at The Walt Disney Company, and earned his CPA license as a senior accountant at KMPG LLP in Los Angeles. Clark's wife Kendra teaches at Covina High.

Next Week:

Art Barajas, General Manager of the South Hills Country Club is coming to tell about the history of the club, amenities and membership.

Last Week:

Tamiko Chacon from First Baptist Church in Pomona gave an enlightening and informative presentation on human-trafficking and the steps local organizations are taking to eradicate this injustice.

Way to go Covina Rotary!

At the District Conference we won some awards: Community Service – for Covina Rotary Cares Christmas project and Field of Valor, Public Relations – for the media coverage of the Field of Valor, Presidential Citation – “Awarded to the Rotary Club of Covina for Actively working to achieve Peace Through Service” and Club Service and Membership Retention.
