Thought for the Week:

Your reputation is what people think you are,
Your character is what you really are.

This Week: Andrew Anzur

We will have a special guest! Andrew Anzur Clement will be here to speak about his adventures in Rotary Scholarship. Andrew was sponsored by our Rotary Club as the Rotary International Ambassadorial Scholar to Poland and the Ukraine. We will hear all about his life-changing experience.

Last Week: Norway Adventure

Pat Serio took us on an “armchair vacation” to Norway! Pat shared some wonderful stories and interesting information about this beautiful country. It was the next best thing to being there with her!

Notable Notations:

John Richter has been a Covina Rotary member for 25 years -- since September 1, 1988.

Congratulations!

Next Week: Walter Allen

Walter Allen, Mayor of Covina, will talk to us about Parole Realignment. Realignment generally refers to the shift in the assignment of program and fiscal responsibilities between the state and local governments. Under AB 109, signed by Governor Jerry Brown in April 2011 and funded by the state budget passed in June 2011, realignment refers to the shifting of criminal justice responsibilities from the state prisons and parole board to local county officials and superior courts.

Effective October 1, 2011, counties will be expected to take over the supervision of prisoners placed on parole whose last offense was not a violent crime or a sex offense. There are certain exceptions to this rule if the offender is judged to be “high risk”. In addition, newly convicted offenders who are deemed to be non-violent, non-serious, and non-sex offenders will be placed on probation or in local jails in lieu of sentences to state prison. Lower risk parole violators will be kept at the local level. AB 109 is prospective, which means no inmates currently in state prison will be transferred to county jails or released early.
