Thought for the week: A willing heart lightens work

This Week:

January 30th our speaker will be Richard Schulof, CEO of the Los Angeles Arboretum and Botanical Gardens. Richard will talk to us about what the Los Angeles Arboretum has to offer, events, programs and opportunities. He is also a fellow Rotarian, belonging to the Arcadia Rotary.

Next week:

Bern Heimos will speak on the Romance of Vintage Flying. He is an aviation and outdoor photographer. Moto: If you think aviation is just about flying, you are missing the adventure.

Last Week:

Bena Cuevas, regional sales director for Southern California region for Holiday Retirement spoke to us about the factors to consider when considering senior retirement living: Finance, Health, Family, Location, Community. Different options available such as assisted living, hospice, CCRC (Continue care Retirement community), Nursing care facility, independent retirement living (IRL) which is also today's topic. IRL provides an all-inclusive lifestyle with simplicity, security, wellness and independence.

In Memoriam:

Joanne Marilyn Porter - 10/27/1930 – 01/02/2014
Joanne passed away at her home in West Covina, courageous battle with cancer. Marilyn, a very accomplished musician, was the organist at Covina United Methodist Church, playing the pipe organ, for 36 years.

“I had the privilege of having Marilyn accompany the opening singing ceremony of our Covina Rotary Club for several years. She brought music to our meetings each Thursday and will be remembered as a gracious, talented lady.” Jim Teal
