

This Week:

Fun Run & the Art of Pancakes

In a recap of Fun Run, Jon Teran, will present his observations, new inspirations and regrets. The pancake crew will discuss their love/hate feelings about breakfast.

Along with a dose of RYLA recaps: The students made it back safe and sound from camp and they will be inspiring our on-going participation in the program by sharing their experiences with us.

And a bit of Field of Valor: Linda and Wayne have been planning the 2014 FOV since 2013 – Find out their latest visions for our spectacular event in November.

SET YOUR CLOCKS FOR:

Noon on May 22th: Whose that Member?

Next week’s meeting promises to be part game show as we learn more about our fellow Covina Rotarians. Maybe you can find out who amongst us is a retired spy and who are the nudists. Perhaps Jerry Smith will tell us why he gave up a promising career on a fishing boat to become a dentist.

All day May 16th and 17th: District 5300 Conference with extraordinary hospitality suite by Covina Rotary and friends at Hilton Palm Springs. President Tricia is also planning a dinner for our club members Saturday night.

8 a.m. May 23rd: Covina Cares Meeting at the office

Of Tony Nevarez, 800 E. Arrow Hwy, Covina

6 p.m. June 28th: Tricia’s kick out party.

FLOYD MYRICK AWARDS

Each spring, since 1960, Covina Rotary presents awards to four low achieving high school students in Covina and Charter Oak to honor them for their efforts in bringing up their grades. The awards were conceived by our deceased member, Floyd Myrick, DDS. If you would like to attend the ceremonies, contact Jim Teal or your favorite psychic.
