

Thought for the week “Sheldon’s Slogan: He profits most who serves best.” This slogan was adopted at the second Rotary Convention. It was part of the platform that was submitted by the Rotary Club of Seattle. (Paul, Harris This Rotarian Age, page 86)

This Week: Lou Serrano

Lou Serrano is a professional magician, marketing consultant, and keynote speaker. He is known the world over for his elegant, sleight-of-hand magic.

He's a frequent performer at the word-famous Magic Castle in Hollywood, and he is the author of several best selling books and DVDs focusing on the development of magic as an art and business.

Last Week: Club Assembly:

Tony Navarez talked about Endless Smiles program which was Target Shopping on August 11,2014. Rich Jett discussed budget which is in good shape. Linda Logan talked about Field Of Valor. Patricia Harvey & Harry Borak spoke on membership. Our goal for this year is 12 new members. Mickey Kissell & Tricia Vagt shared ideas for fund raising.

Next week; CaL Rods and Covina Rotary Club present a tribute to Gordon Browning.

The CAL-RODS Car Club was started in 1954 by Don Scurti (a Junior in 1954) on the advice of Clyde Gorsuch so the boys would "have something to do". Mr. Gorsuch had talked to Scurti for almost a year until they finally decided to form a club to teach the boys how to work on their cars and to learn what makes them run.
