

October 9, 2014 Issue #14 Editor: Shirley Harrison

THIS WEEK:

JOHN CROWE &

PHILANTHROPY IN THE EAST

John Crowe will review philanthropy's role in building Southern California's great communities and institutions. He has held key fundraising roles at Claremont Colleges and USC. John has also been engaged in campaigns for a variety of organizations including an auto museum, Citrus Valley Health Partners, Los Angeles Music Center, L.A. County Fair and a chamber of commerce.

THUNDERFEST -- 10/11/14

Covina Rotarians can now call this annual event:

Have I got a parking lot for you! Or Hey Babe, want a bottle of water?

Either way, it is money for our charity account. Be at your designated spot that day and smile.

Painting by renowned Covina auto artist Dennis Brown.

NEXT WEEK: PAVEL BINDA, MD,

Chief Medical Officer for Citrus Valley Health Partners will speak about health care from a historical perspective and take us forward to the Affordable Care Act.

LAST WEEK: THE INDUCTION OF DARIO CASTELLANOS

Linda Logan, Dario Castellanos, Harry Borak, and Pres. Jon Teran

BIRTHDAYS:

Catherine Nichols proclaims: We will end polio before my next birthday on 10/11/15.

ROTARY IN OCTOBER:

Vocational Service Month is designed to make us aware of the values of all the professions around us. In the past, each Rotary club could only have one member from any given "classification" so clubs got creative in order to accommodate new members. Some of the classifications we have given our dentists in Covina Rotary include:

Dan Banh, Orthodontia; Stanford King, Periodontist; Jeff Cohen, Family Dentistry; Jerry Smith, Cosmetic Dentistry; Jim Teal, Dentistry, Orthodontics; and Fred Wong, Dentist.

& DON'T FORGET:

10/26 Chili Cook-Off

10/29 Membership Development Meeting at Azo Vino.

Patricia Harvey and Tricia Vagt are already preparing.
