

THIS WEEK: DANIEL THOMAS
YOUTH PROTECTION

You may know how to change a diaper and comfort a child when they are hit in the face by a flag in the wind. Those skills will come in handy at Field of Valor unless you don't know how to do properly touch a child under the 2014 parameters set by Rotary's Youth Protection Policy. Luckily, Dan Thomas will be at our meeting this week to give us all of the latest tips. Two of our shorter members (Andy and Sue) will stand in as child models to aid Dan in his politically correct demonstrations.

The Scream by Edvard Munch, 1893

October 30th, Join Patricia Harvey at Azo Vino for a Membership Development Meeting or just for the fellowship.

Otherwise, she may show up at your door on Halloween and play a little trick on you if you don't come up with a proposed member for her treat.

2ND ANNUAL CHILI COOK-OFF:

As predicted, the Chili Cook Off on 10/26/14 was a big success. The food was incredible and the dunk tank was a great source of entertainment. Here are a few photos. Check out more on the Rotary Facebook page that Dawn maintains for Covina Rotary.

Dunkies Andy McIntyre, Dario Castellanos, Tony Nevarz, and Nathan Logan with Club Photographer Dan Banh -- thanks also to Mike Hendricks and President Jon Teran for taking their turns in the tank.

Rich and Gayle Jett taking in the money with Tom Patronite. Thanks to the efforts of Mickey Kissell and her committee, we have increased the size of our Charity account and have people eager to return for Chili next year.

HAPPY BELATED B'DAYS:

Bill Scroggins (10/26)

Linda Logan (10/27)

As well as Rotary Sweethearts Terry Wysocki and Don Brown (10/29)

NEXT WEEK, 11-06-14:

Vocational luncheons at ICMC, as well as the offices Jon Teran and Dawn Cychner. Since there was not enough chili left over from our successful cook-off, meals will be catered at each of the three locations.
