November 20, 2014 Issue #18 Editor: Tricia Vagt

THIS WEEK: JASON FARNED PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICER SAN GABRIEL VALLEY MOSQUITO & VECTOR CONTROL DISTRICT

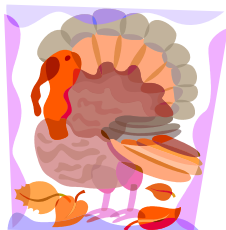

Vector Control in San Gabriel Valley:
Season Update

I will discuss the importance of vector control and the current status of West Nile virus, invasive species and pesticide use in our District.

Jason began with the San Gabriel Valley Mosquito and Vector Control District in July of 2013 as a Vector Control Specialist. He was promoted to his current position as Public Information Officer in June 2014 where he manages District communications, education and public outreach. He is a graduate of Cal Poly Pomona where he received his Bachelor of Science degree in Hotel and Restaurant Management from the Collins College in 2004. He is currently working on his master's degree at the University of La Verne.
