Covina Rotary Club - District 5300 - Chartered March 8, 1923

May 14, 2015 Issue #36 Editor: S. J. Harrison

THIS WEEK:

Elizabeth Mullender:
Clara Baldwin Stocker Home

Elizabeth Mullender is the Director of Marketing & Admissions Coordinator for Clara Baldwin Stocker Home, a skilled nursing and rehabilitation facility in West Covina. In addition to talking about the Baldwins' rich family history, Elizabeth will help us better understand the options that are available for senior care. Whether you are old or young, it is sure to be a thought provoking presentation.

LAST WEEK: City Manager Andrea Miller talked about the state of Covina and her plans for invigorating our city and avoiding bankruptcy.

NEXT WEEK: Grady Reed educates us about Waves for Water, Clean Water for Gwembe Valley, a Covina Rotary charity recipient.

5 Months, 3 weeks from now: Field of Valor

All members will need to be there to help. As you can see,

Duane Keene and Mickey Kissell are already checking out the field and wondering where those 2001 flags are hiding.

Gordon Cooper & our 2015 RYLA group

Here's to Rotarian Gordon Cooper for taking on the 2015 position with RYLA and spontaneously adding extra tasks once he arrived at camp. Hereafter, he will be known as: Sir Gordon of All Trades.

Jim Teal is Floyd Myrick's #1 Fan -- Just ask his beautiful wife.

45th FLOYD MYRICK AWARDS

May in Covina is all about Rotarian Floyd Myrick and the legacy he left with the Awards that have carried his name for 45 years. They will be given to 10 local high school students who have "caught fire" and made tremendous strides over the current year. Rotarians can join Jim Teal and Brian Akers at any or all of the ceremonies:

- Charter Oak High 5/12,
- Northview High 5/28,
- South Hills on 6/01 &
- Covina High to be announced.

For detailed information, including times and campus locations, please contact Jim Teal or Brian Akers. Check your rosters for their numbers.
