

September 03, 2015 Issue #9 Editor: S. J. Harrison

THIS WEEK :

ANDY PACHECO & THE VALUE OF SELF PUBLISHING YOUR STORY

Author Manny Pacheco has enjoyed a growing acclaim through his Forgotten Hollywood Book Series, now included in the library collections of the Hollywood Heritage Museum, Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, American Film Institute, among others. He's currently in production to turn his literary work into a Forgotten Hollywood Documentary. He has also been a Southern California television and radio personality for over three decades. In November, Manny will be joining us at Field of Valor as a featured speaker but we have him all to ourselves this week.

LAST WEEK : District Governor Randy Pote inspired Linda Logan, President Andy and Rich Jett, along with all of the Covina Rotarians.

NEXT WEEK / SEPT 10

Chaplain Albert Aguilar of Citrus Valley Health Partners returns to share his wide and varied experiences as a chaplain.

September 16, noon - McIntyre office – Board Meeting

September 17, noon - Our new Covina Valley Unified School District Superintendent Dr. Richard Sheehan will be our speaker.

WHERE'S BETH? THANKS FOR ASKING

Beth Dixon has been missing more meetings than usual because she is dividing her time between the Opus Banks in Covina and Monrovia. Fortunately, that does not keep Beth and hubby John from socializing with Patricia Harvey and other Rotarians on the weekends.

THE WHEEL'S NEW LOOK: The cover of the Wheel now changes each month for those who collect them. In August, Andy was shown fishing. This month...

