

October 08, 2015 Issue #13 Editor: S. J. Harrison

THIS WEEK: RICHARD HOPKINS
East San Gabriel Valley Coalition for the Homeless

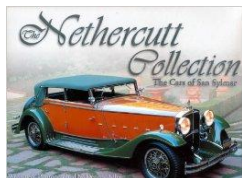

Richard Hopkins hails from Chicago but he has spent the majority of his life in Southern California. After working in finance, securities, insurance, real estate and other fields, he joined his wife's family business (Marvern Corp) to manage a group of KFC franchises. He is now working for the ESGV Coalition for the Homeless.

On the home front, Richard and his wife Diane are preparing for the arrival of two grandchildren -- a pair of fraternal twins that their daughter Elizabeth plans to deliver within a month. Hopefully it won't be on Oct. 8th.

NEXT WEEK

Thursday 10/15 Dawn Cychner presents:
How to make the most of your credit!

Saturday 10/17 Nethercutt Collection
Join the tour with your fellow Rotarians.
For more info: Contact Tricia Vagt

LAST WEEK: VOCATIONAL AWARENESS

1.) Pat Serio's injection molding plant

John Richter, Rich Jett, Lina Ledford, The Guide, Pat Serio, Pres. Andy

2.) Partee Insurance where Wayne's wild office mates enjoyed having Rotarians a la Twilight Zone for lunch and Wayne peddled the cookbook: How to Serve Humans.

3.) Inter-Community Medical Center where Rob Curry showed off the new hybrid operating room and the skeleton of the new Emergency Department.

Dan Banh, Tricia Vagt, Rob Curry, Jennifer Root, Linda Logan, Dario Castellanos, Gordon Cooper with our guides, Nancy and Rio.

If you missed the luncheons, I suggest you NOT make the same mistake next year.

