

December 3, 2015 Issue #19 Editor: Dan Banh

This Week:

Field of Valor Follow-Up. Linda and Wayne did an outstanding job to make it another successful year.

We've raised more money to assist our local needy veterans, servicemen and their families. This year also marked the 40th anniversary of the end of Vietnam War. I'm so grateful that I have gotten to meet some of Vietnam Vets and personally thanking them for their effort to bring freedom to my native country. So proud to be part of this wonderful project!

Next Week:

Dario will have Mr. Jorge Marquez as our program. Jorge will be speaking on his work with two non-profit organizations, the Covina Breakfast Lions Club and the Charter Oak Education Foundation.

Last Week:

Hope you all had a wonderful Thanksgiving!!! As for me:

I ate too much Turkey, I ate too much corn,
I ate too much cookies and pie.

I'm filled up with muffins and too much stuffing
I'm not going to lie.
I piled up my plate and I ate and I ate.
But I wish I had known when to stop,
For I'm so crammed with yams, gravies & jams
Now how I'm going to shop!
I'm full of tomatoes and french fried potatoes
My stomach is swollen and sore,
But there's still some dessert so I guess it won't hurt if
I eat just a little bit more!

Covina Cares Christmas Party is next Saturday, 12/12. The format has been changed a little bit to make it more fun for everyone. We are only giving out toys and books, no food. It's going to be all about the children! Tony and his committee are expecting over 400 kids this year. The cost of course will be tremendous. Needless to say, we need donations of toys and money. Contact everyone you know for this worthy cause. Sue said we all need write-offs. So come on people! The fundraising campaign is in full swing.

In Case You Missed It:

USC beat ucla, 40 - 21, clinched Pac-12 South title. Now let's go cut down some trees, bring on the Stanford Cardinal for the Pac-12 Championship! Fight On!!!

* If SC wins this weekend, Andy and I will make a big donation to Covina Xmas Event!
