

December 10, 2015 Issue #20 Editor: Dan Banh

This Week:

Jorge Marquez grew up in Covina and he's passionate about this community. He is a tireless community volunteer and has served as a City Commissioner, CVUSD's Personnel Commissioner, AYSO coach, member of the Covina Lions Breakfast Club. He also serves as a Director for Charter Oak Education Foundation, and as a parishioner at Sacred Heart Parish. Jorge was elected to the Covina City Council in 2013 and currently serves as Covina's representative to SC Association of Government.

Jorge works as a Field Deputy for the CA State Legislature, handling variety of issues such as Public Safety, Judicial Affairs, Housing, and Sports Arts and Entertainment. Any programs or projects that benefit our community, he is there.

Next Week:

It's our annual Covina Rotary Christmas Luncheon. This year you actually get choices of meat, Herb Chicken or Top Sirloin, WOW! That's another reason to bring everyone you know - staff, friends, colleagues, and prospective members. Music will be provided by Charter Oak ACCs. So come, have fun and meet Santa! Unless, you haven't been very nice and afraid you might end up on Santa's naughty list.

Last Week:

It's official, FOV was a resounding success! We've raised over 72k vs a little less than 50k last year. More money raised means more help to the veterans! In addition, the project has caught attention from other cities and they, too, want to do something similar. Awesome job everyone!

Covina Cares Christmas Party or Endless Smiles Christmas Event is this Saturday, 12/12, 8 am. It should be a fun event for all of us, not just for the kids. There will be a lot to do so we need all hands on deck. Every rotarian is needed. In addition, don't forget to bring toys to donate; if not, money will be just as good. See you all this Saturday!

Membership Development:

Every member has a responsibility to grow our membership. We have plenty reasons to be proud of and everyone in the community should know about us. There should be a sense of pride and honor to become a member of the Greatest Rotary Club in the World. So please make a special effort or a new year's resolution to recruit at least one prospective member per member per year.

Happy Holidays Everyone!