Covina Rotary Club - District 5300 - Chartered March 8, 1923

August 25, 2016 Issue # 8 Editor: Tricia Vagt

This Week

Rafael Valles is the Community Outreach & Resource Planning Specialist (CORPS) for the United States Department of Labor – Wage and Hour Division, West Covina District Office. He is entering his eleventh year of federal service with the agency, having started his career in the southwest region as an investigator in Dallas and continuing in the western region. In his current position, he is responsible for coordinating, implementing, and evaluating enforcement & informational activities of the district office. As a representative for the White House Initiative on Asian American and Pacific Islanders, and the Employment, Education and Outreach program, he has collaborated with alliance partners to strategically promote the mission of the agency across the United States. He has been the recipient of several Wage and Hour awards and regional recognitions throughout his career. Born and raised in Los Angeles, he graduated from St. John Bosco High School and received his Master of Science in Business and Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice degrees from universities in Texas and California. He is a vintage collector of 1950's memorabilia and is proud to call the foothills of La Verne his home.

MEMBERSHIP GROWTH NEEDED

One Person YOU could introduce to Rotary is the Person that would make a Great Rotarian.

Do you do business with someone now that you would consider a person worthy of Rotary?

It never hurts to ask. Free lunch. What can it hurt.

DATES TO REMEMBER

DISTRICT 5300 Govenor Luciano de Sylva
