THIS WEEK: ENDLESS SMILES &

OTHER GREAT IDEAS FROM TONY NEVAREZ

In Mid-December 2016, Covina Rotary helped about 320 children in our community with a morning of crafts, snacks, toys and books (of their choosing), along with a visit and picture with Santa, in mid-December. However, it wasn't enough smiles for Tony. He had to spread joy internationally. This week he presents what we accomplished and what is in store for us in California, as well as Mexico. Be prepared to be awed.

While December brought us Endless Smiles, we were also saddened to begrudgingly accept the resignation of Mike Newman. Guess he'll be eating lunch with Louise on Thursdays!

MEMBERSHIP DEVELOPMENT:

Last week, Covina's new City Manager, Brian Saeki, stopped by to meet us and President Patricia worked her magic on him in hopes of convincing him to join Covina Rotary. If not, she will continue searching for new members. Please join her in that quest but remember to back off whenever you feel that your "potential" member is ready to file for a Restraining Order. You never know who is out there just hoping that someone will invite them to join a fabulous club like Covina Rotary.

BUILDING GOODWILL & FRIENDSHIPS:

COVINA ROTARY IS GOING TO RHYTHMIC CIRCUS

Sunday, March 26 at 2 p.m., join Sue Wysocki at Citrus College for an award-winning "Feet Don't Fail Me Now Show," featuring world-class percussive tap hoofers and a 7-piece brass band. The show is billed as a fun, edgy, explosive extravaganza for all ages. RSVP to Sue NOW!

LOOKING FOR SERVICE ABOVE SELF:
