

THIS WEEK: DAWN NELSON

COVINA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Dawn Nelson
President/CEO

Dawn Nelson of the Covina Chamber of Commerce will be our featured speaker this week. Covina's Chamber of Commerce was founded in 1900 and Dawn has been its CEO since July of 2002. She is well known to all the service clubs, including Covina Rotary, and all the local businesses. Dawn will be providing us with a unique view of Covina.

Joining Dawn in her presentation, expect to hear from Covina Rotarians who have served the Chamber in the role of Chairman. This includes John Brittain, Harry Borak, Rich Jett and a host of others.

Upcoming Chamber Events:

- 3/23 SGV Business Mixer
- 3/30 Lunch & Learn:
Social Media and Online Marketing
- 06/22 Taste of Covina at Heritage Park

Upcoming Covina Rotary Opportunities:

1. Donate clothing or bedding for the families we are helping in Tijuana, and/or join Tony Nevarez in delivering those items.
2. Deliver Meals on Wheels.
3. Help with finding sponsors, donations, etc. for our Fun Run in April.
4. Invite potential new members to lunch on Thursdays so that our club can grow and continue to be vibrant as we serve others above ourselves.
5. Attend next week's meeting to hear Gil Martin, MD Speak about his work in neonatal medicine.

Newly proposed members:

The following people are being considered for membership and Covina Rotary's Board of Directors would like your input.

Fabiola Holquin of Vanlee Hotel & Suites (formerly Park Inn). Fabiola is part of the hotel's management team. She currently lives in Diamond Bar.

Carlos Velasco of RE/MAX Leaders in West Covina. He is in sales and lives in Covina.

Rebeca Palamo who is a restaurant manager for Hami Hon's Steak House. She lives in West Covina.

All three members are being proposed by Harry Borak.

Don't Forget: This week's meeting is on Arrow Hwy at
