

THIS WEEK: KAREN MICHAELLE

In 2014, Michaëlle resigned from her long-time career as a corporate professional in order to embrace a more fulfilling chapter in her life. It started in Kenya with her heart being broken by the sight of thousands of orphaned kids who call the streets home. Although she would have preferred to immediately help all the children, Karen honed her focus on what she could do. This led her to rescue seven street boys and place them with a permanent family in a home she named Upendo Home. That remarkable story was documented in her first book – SEEN: Hope Prevails.

With determination to meet the daily and educational needs of these children, Karen founded and became the CEO of the California-based 501 (c)(3) nonprofit, Love Without Borders whose mission it is to Empower Justice and Inspire the Future. Those involved with Fun Run formed a remarkable team that put together an incredible event for our community.

Last Weekend: RYLA vs. Fun Run

Last weekend, Covina Rotarians could have all volunteered to be at RYLA (Rotary Youth Leadership Awards) with the high school students our club sponsored. While there they could have joined the teens and adults in dealing with trust issues as they fell back and hoped someone would catch them. Instead, most of our club members opted for:
