

THIS WEEK: Gerardo Jerry 'The Bear' Delgadillo

Jerry was born in Downey but has been life-long resident of East Los Angeles. By the time he graduated from Salesian High School in 1992. Jerry was already 3 years into a career in the funeral industry. He first worked for Pierce Brothers Gulick Funeral Home as a night attended. In 1995, he found even better opportunities at Guerra Gutierrez Mortuaries and he has now been there for 21 years.

Jerry appreciates that each family he works with has unique and different needs. He enjoys being able to recognize those needs and help families through the funeral process.

Jerry is a single father and takes great pride in his two children. His son Jeremy is happily working at Disneyland and daughter Kennedy is finishing her education at the University of Mount St. Mary's.

When Jerry is not working at the funeral home, he enjoys Charity Service and spending time with his family. This often includes movies, food, amusement park, and family vacations. He is also a member of St. Alphonsus Catholic Church.

Don't forget Father's Day this Sunday

Whether that father-child bond is by blood or by love, take time to make happy memories on Father's Day or simply relax and reminisce.

Advertisements like this just make me want to go out and get my polio vaccination all over again. How about you? Thanks to RI & WHO, terrors of polio are going bye bye.

Hints on things to do in June:

- Next Thursday, enjoy Tony's craft talk.
- The following Thursday, pretend it is Wednesday and don't go to Rotary.
- *On Friday 6/30/17 at 5 p.m., act all confused and go to President Patricia's Kick-Out thing at that pretend farm we like to meet at sometimes.
